3.2.1. Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

The various initiatives have been taken to create an ecosystem for innovations, creation and transfer of knowledge. Details as follows:

1. Collaborations

A MoU has been signed with Auburn University at Montgomery in furtherance of education benefits and also to carry out joint Research activities, exchange of information and joint participation in internationally funded projects.

2. Industry Academia Partnership

College has MoUs with Xeam Ventures and Eco Laboratories & Consultants Pvt. Ltd. to provide possible training and placement avenues in the field of Human Resource Management and Environment Sciences and related studies respectively.

3. Research Centre

Approved as Research Centre in Zoology by Panjab University, Chandigarh.

4. Students-Holistic Development

Workshops/webinars on the latest and Research related topics are conducted regularly. Field/ Industrial visits are planned for better understanding. Students are encouraged to organize/participate in various fests/competitions of various levels to display their innate talents and skills. This year such fests were organized online and students participated enthusiastically. Students of some courses undergo industrial training/Internship/research project to further enhance their knowledge. Students of functional English also go beyond course knowledge and design and publish 'Scoop' which is an annual newsletter. The students contribute to the college magazine 'Shikhar' as well. Friday Fables and Tele Tuesdays is another platform wherein the students and faculty showcase their story telling talent and is a platform through which they are acquainted with Literature. College has 12 societies, NCC, NSS units that actively conduct various activities regularly to hone the skills and to serve the society.

5. Supporting Infrastructure and Facilities

The available infrastructure and facilities provide an enabling environment to learn, implement and innovate. There are 39 well-equipped laboratories that include a state-of-the-art research lab for life sciences, IT labs, science labs, separate labs for functional English, functional Hindi, performing arts etc.

These laboratories have ICT facilities. The College has a 100 Mbps lease line and provides high-speed Wi-Fi connectivity. The College library is a facilitator that further opens the door to knowledge and innovation. It provides access to e-Books & Journals through DELNET, NDLI & INFLIBNET, for plagiarism check library has a subscription to URKUND. Our library is also the first in the Tricity to have a subscription to VIDWAN- a database of all research work wherein our faculty has uploaded all their research work. To cater to the needs of print disabled the library is equipped with JAWS i.e. a Braille Software and Daisy Reader. To provide a serene and concentrated environment there are separate Cabins for PG/ Research Scholars in the library.

6. Faculty- Upgrading of Skills and Competencies

Many faculty members also undertake various major and minor research projects. In the current session, we have 4 research projects. Many of our faculty members are guiding research scholars. Our faculty members also show active involvement in participation in conferences/seminars/workshops etc. to which they have 29 research papers/articles and 16 books/ edited books/ chapters in books to the credit (AQAR 2020-21 time period). Faculty members also get duty leaves for attending these activities. Teaching and Non-teaching staff members are also encouraged to enhance their qualification.
