

A Report on Marathon for LiFE (Lifestyle for Environment)

Dated 25th March 2023

The Department of Environment, CPCC (Chandigarh Pollution Control Committee), Chandigarh Administration in collaboration with NGO, Yuvsatta, organized a 6 kms “Marathon for LiFE (Lifestyle for the Environment) which started and ended at Sukhana Lake Chandigarh. 100 volunteers from Post Graduate Govt. College for Girls Sector-42, Chandigarh from the department of physical education and environment society Srishti participated in this marathon. Shri Dharam Pal, IAS, Adviser to Administrator, Chandigarh Administration was the chief guest of the event and flagged off the marathon at 7:00 a.m. Sh. Debandra Dalai Director of the Department of Environment Chandigarh Administration and Chief Guest of the event sh. Dharam pal ji honored Madam Principal Prof. Nisha Aggarwal for the active participation of her college in the event. Students were accompanied by prof. Ram Niwas Yadav, Dr. Ranjna Sharma, Dr. Shefali Malhotra and Dr. Sangam Verma. Prof. Ram Niwas Yadav also participated in Marathon and stood 4th. The first five winners in each category were awarded trophies and cash prizes. Our college B.PEd Students Sukhbir Kaur, Priya, and Ashu stood First, Second, and third respectively in the girls’ category and were awarded trophies by Sh. Debandra Dalai, Director Dept. of Environment Chandigarh Administration.

Glimpses of the Event

Madam Principal Prof. (Dr.) Nisha Aggarwal receiving an award of Appreciation from Shri Dharam Pal, IAS, Adviser to Administrator, Chandigarh Administration

Prof. Ram Niwas Yadav Receiving 4th Prize for Marathon

Sukhbir Kaur Receiving First Prize in Girls Category

Priya Receiving 2nd Prize in Girls Category

Ashu Receiving 3rd Prize in Girls Category

Madam Principal with Winners

Group Photograph of Winners and Teachers with Debanadra Dalai ji