Webinar on "G20 Partnership: Economic Implications for India"

Date: 12th June 2023

Under the auspices of G 20 and Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav a webinar was held on the theme "G20 Partnership: Economic Implications for India" on the 12th of June. The purpose of the webinar was to investigate the role that India's relationship with the G20 plays and the advantages that it provides in a variety of areas, including trade and commerce, employment, tourism, and climate change.

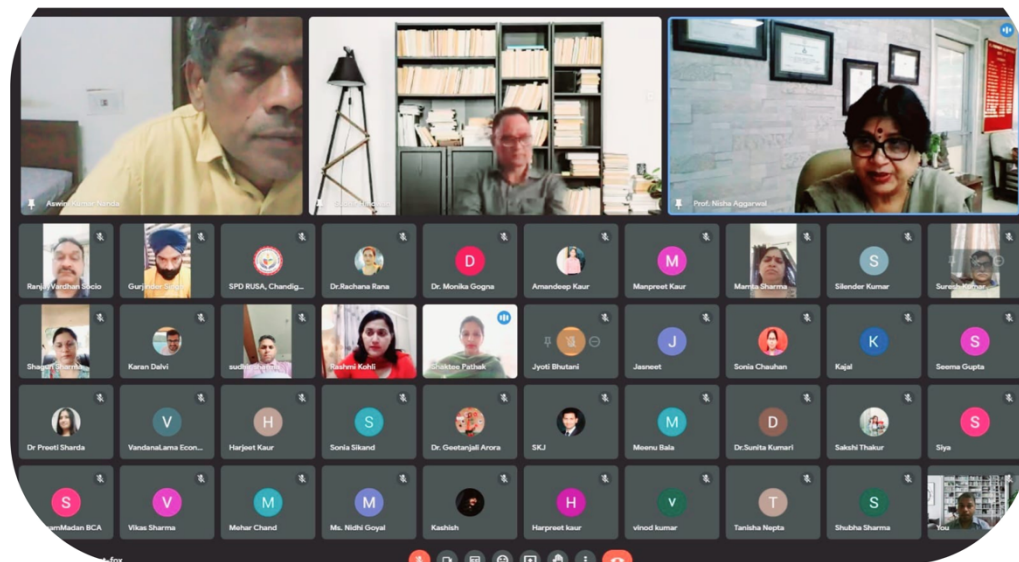

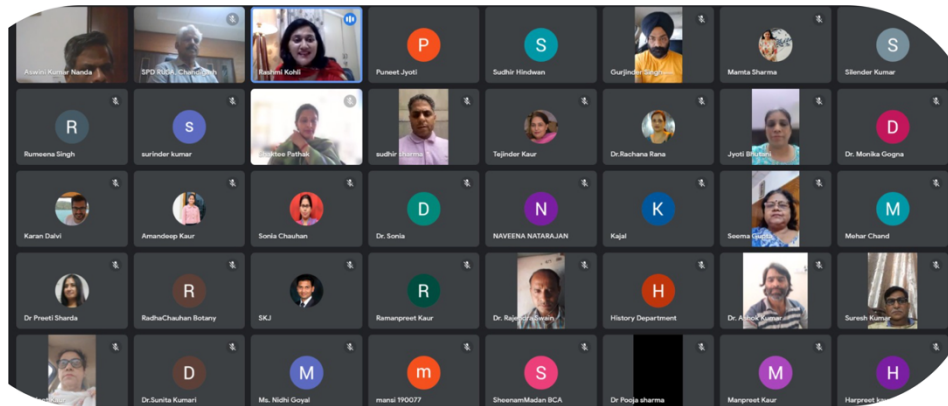

The principal, Prof. Nisha Aggarwal, opened the webinar with a heartfelt welcome, during which she expressed her thanks to both the guest speaker and the attendees. Prof. Aswini Nanda, (Professor at Centre for Research in Rural & Industrial Development, Sector 19, Chandigarh) an expert in international economics, was the esteemed guest speaker for the session. Prof. Nanda presented a detailed review of the interconnectedness among economies and introduced the audience to the G20, its significance, its spread, and the participating countries. He also offered an outline of the G20's role in the global economy.

Prof. Nanda drew attention to India's current leadership of the G20 and emphasized the country's importance in influencing the economic policies of other nations throughout the world. He provided light on the economic implications of India's participation with G20, emphasizing its influence on trade, commerce, employment, and tourism.

Following the presentation, a question-answer session provided an opportunity for participants to engage with Prof. Nanda and seek clarification on various aspects of G20 partnership. Prof. Sudhir Hindwan, convener of the G20 & Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav committee thanked Principal ma'am for her support and guidance as well as thanked Prof. Nanda for his informative session. Prof. Hindwan also thanked his team for organizing the webinar and expressed gratitude towards everyone who participated.

The webinar was a success, with 75 attendees. The attendees came away with a stronger grasp of the economic ramifications of India's affiliation with the G20. The event, which highlighted India's activities in the global economic community, made a contribution to the Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations that are still going on.
