REPORT

Date-15th August 2023

PGGCG-42, Chandigarh today celebrated 77th Independence Day of India. In line with the initiatives of the Government of India, the college has also been celebrating numerous activities under the aegis of "Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav" as well as "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaigns. The celebration began with a vibrant "Prabhat Pheri- Tiranga Rally" held by National Cadet Corps (NCC) Unit of the college. Principal Prof. (Dr.) Nisha Aggarwal hoisted the tricolour flag with a profound sense of respect and honour. Against the backdrop of the clear morning sky, the flapping flag represented the sacrifices made by innumerable individuals for the nation's freedom.

Following the raising of the flag, a series of engaging activities followed in the auditorium Sabras. Students delivered speeches, recited poems and sung patriotic songs emphasizing the significance of Independence Day and the responsibilities that come with living in a free country. The audience was moved by the students' eloquent speech, which demonstrated their comprehension of the sacrifices that led to India's independence. The Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Nisha Aggarwal, delivered an inspiring address. In her speech, she emphasized the significance of unity in diversity and upholding the values for which our ancestors fought during the struggle for independence and emulate such path of selfless service and contribute in nation building. She motivated the girls to be self-reliant and highlighted the achievements of the nation like recent Asian Hockey Championship and the successfully launch of Chandrayaan 3. She also highlighted the achievements of the college like A Grade from NAAC and the largest plantation drive held by the college which was appreciated by MGNCRE, Ministry of Education.

She also motivated the students to register for Voter-ID Cards so that they could vote for the upcoming Lok Sabha Elections. The Principal, faculty, and students took the Panchpran pledge which was the highlight of the assembly. The event concluded with National Anthem and served as a heartfelt tribute to the nation's champions and rekindled the spirit of freedom. The event commemorated the nation's independence and was a demonstration of the students' unity and fervour. The NSS Cadets donned their uniforms, carried the national flag, and chanted patriotic slogans that resounded throughout the campus. The Department of Physical Education, the NCC and NSS Units of the college jointly organized this event.
