Under the aegis of Chandigarh Administration, PGGCG 42 Chandigarh today hosted a function to celebrate the courage, grit and determination of Women Bikers of Team JK Zone under the expedition 'Yashaswini' Of CRPF in collaboration with the Ministry of Women and Child Development. The campaign has been organized to spread awareness on valuing the girl child and to celebrate Nari Shakti. They also endorse 'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' as they ride from Srinagar and make their way towards the Statue of Unity in Ekta Nagar, Gujarat. Principal Prof. (Dr.) Nisha Aggarwal formally welcomed everyone. Home Secretary Sh. Nitin Kumar Yadav, IAS, Deputy Commissioner Sh. Vinay Pratap Singh, IAS, Director, Social Welfare, Women and Child Development Dr. Pallika Arora, PCS, Director Higher Education Sh. Amandeep Singh Bhatti, PCS, IGP Sh. Jasbir Singh Sandhu and Commandant CRPF Smt. Kamal Sisodiya were present on the occasion. SDM (East) Sh. Nitish Singla, SDM (South) Sh. Naveen Ratu and many dignitaries from CRPF were also present. The women bikers were welcomed with Tilak ceremony, a symbol of victory and glory, and felicitated with mementoes to commend their efforts. The students of the college also presented a colourful cultural programme in the college auditorium 'Sabras' after the felicitation ceremony. The bikers met and interacted with girl students, NSS volunteers, NCC cadets and stressed further on the importance of education, physical fitness and significance of being truly empowered.
