

Report on One Day Long Bazaar Organized By Aahar Kranti Club of PGGCG 42 in Collaboration With Nivedita Charitable Trust (Regd), Mohali

The Aahar Kranti Club of Post Graduate Government College for Girls, Sector 42, Chandigarh and Nivedita Charitable Trust (Regd), Mohali organized a day long bazaar – A pre diwali mela in collaboration with the Social Entrepreneurship Swachhta and Rural Engagement Cell and Women Cell on 7th November, 2023. The event was held under the MoU signed between PGGCG Sector 42, Chandigarh and Nivedita Charitable Trust (Regd), Mohali with a purpose to achieve the goals of Aahar Kranti Mission. The Chief Guest of the event was Mrs Kanwardeep Kaur, Senior Superintendent of Police, UT, Chandigarh. The institute is committed to promoting small business ideas and spreading awareness about the importance and use of millets in daily diets and following a healthy lifestyle as part of the Aahar Kranti mission – Food Revolution under the able guidance of Dr Varinder Garg, OSD to Union Health Minister and President, PGIMER, Chandigarh.

The Chief Guest, Mrs Kanwardeep Kaur and Principal, Prof (Dr) Nisha Aggarwal and Dr Bimal Anjum, Nivedita Charitable Trust visited the stalls and motivated the young girls to keep promoting their start ups and to achieve more milestones in entrepreneurship. Ms Khushi and Ms Abhilasha of BA III put up an innovative stall of ragi golgappas and ragi papdi chaat, Ms Sukhmandeep Kaur of BSc II Microbiology put up a stall of delicious ragi coconut balls and coconut ladoos, Ms Pururva Pathak of BSc II Microbiology put up a counter for amazing jowar chocolate cupcakes and Ms Radha of BA III displayed and sold gluten free bajra jaggery ladoos etc. A stall was also put up by a volunteer of Nivedita Charitable Trust, Ms Kalyani Singh. She displayed and sold her innovative products like beetroot kanji, kodo millet and foxtail millet dosa batters and sattu sugar free ladoos. Ms Kalyani also put up a counter for evaluating the body mass composition. Many students and faculty members showed keen interest in this and got themselves evaluated. Dr Manpreet Kaur, Coordinator of Aahar Kranti Club of the college applauded the sincere efforts of the girls and encouraged them to keep promoting their start ups and to come up with new and innovative ideas and empower themselves. The day long bazaar drew an enthusiastic crowd of more than 1500 students, teachers and office staff from the college. It was a testimony to the success and popularity of the event, fostering entrepreneurship, creativity and sustainable living.

Ms Kalyani Singh, representative of Nivedita Charitable Trust (Regd) Mohali put up a stall of Beetroot Kanji, Kodo and Foxtail millet dosa batters, Sattu sugar free ladoos.

Dr Bimal Anjum, representative from Nivedita Charitable Trust (Regd) graced the occasion. His kind presence motivated and encouraged the young entrepreneurs.

The Chief Guest, Ms Kanwardeep Kaur, Senior Superintendent of Police, UT, Chandigarh and Principal, Prof (Dr) Nisha Aggarwal interacting with Ms Khushi and Ms Abhilasha, BA III who put up a stall of Ragi golgappas & Ragi papdi chaat.

Ms Sukmandeep Kaur & Ms Pururva Pathak, BSc II Microbiology put up a stall of Ragi coconut date balls, Jowar chocolate cupcakes and coconut ladoos. Students enjoying the delicacies at the stall

Students of the college enjoying the millet golgappas & Chaat

Members of Aahar Kranti Club of PGGCG 42 with Madam Principal & Ms Kalyani Singh from Nivedita Charitable Trust (Regd)

Manpreet Kaur

Dr Manpreet Kaur
Coordinator
Aahar Kranti Club

Nishu Jassi

Principal
PG Govt College for Girls
Sector 42, Chandigarh