REPORT

On National Constitution Day, Pledge-taking ceremony was held in the PG. Govt. College for Girls, Sector-42, Chandigarh. The ceremony was conducted on November 25, 2023, to commemorate and celebrate National Constitution Day. Principal of the college Prof (Dr.) Nisha Aggarwal read out the Preamble to the Constitution of India. The Teaching and Non-teaching staff, along with Prof. Nisha Aggarwal, took the pledge in Conference room. The Pledge ceremony was also conducted on November 26, 2023 by hostel Students, hostel staff, along with Hostel Warden in college campus.

The 2023 year marks the 132nd birth anniversary of Ambedkar, who was the chairman of the Drafting Committee of the Constituent Assembly and played a vital role in the drafting of the Constitution. Previously this day was celebrated as Law Day. In 2015 the government of India modified Law Day in the gazette notification and it has been called Constitution Day.

The pledge, an integral element of the Preamble of Constitution, reaffirmed our dedication to India's Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity. In her address to all present on the occasion, the principal highlighted the significance of National Constitution Day by emphasizing the importance of Constitution despite regional, linguistic, or cultural differences. The primary purpose of the event was to promote equality, liberty & fraternity among the staff. As many as 250 teaching and non-teaching staff took the pledge.
