

POST GRADUATE GOVERNMENT COLLEGE FOR GIRLS, SEC -42, CHANDIGARH

REPORT

Equal Opportunity Cell and Committee on Prevention of Caste Based Discrimination (SC/ST) of the college organized a special lecture on the topic " Policies, Programs and Schemes for the Upliftment of Marginalized Communities " on 08 Feb 2024 for U.G. and P.G. students of the college. Dr. Ranjay Vardhan, Convener, Equal Opportunity Cell and Committee on Prevention of Caste Based Discrimination (SC/ST) and Head, Department of Sociology shared his thought on the Problems, Disabilities as well as the struggles faced by SC, ST and other marginalized communities. He also mentioned about the Policies and Programs which have been initiated by Government and about the Constitutional Provisions for the welfare of SC and ST. He informed that students and faculty members can register their complaints with Committee on Prevention of Caste Based Discrimination (SC/ST) and assured that necessary actions will be taken against the person if found guilty.

Ms. Akriti Manhas, a student of MAII Sociology gave a detailed presentation on various articles in Constitution protecting interests of marginalized communities. She also made students aware of policies and programs through which they and their families can benefit. More than 80 students and all members of committee and faculty members actively participated in the talk. Dr. Jyoti Ahuja thanked the participants and speakers.
