COUNSELING COMMITTEE DURING (COVID-19)

The COVID-19 pandemic has transformed and upended our lives more swiftly than we could have imagined. It has changed the way we live, study, work and connect with each other. Students have demonstrated incredible resilience and determination to keep learning and thriving despite the constraints and hurdles created by the pandemic. We are so grateful for your commitment to your degree programs and the empathy and compassion you have demonstrated.

Although, all these rapid changes might have resulted in fear, anxiety, uncertainty, loss of interest and feelings of helplessness among you. In order to provide updated and relevant information about academics during (COVID-19), the college has constituted a counseling committee comprising of faculty and students. You can seek help from any of the members listed below relating to academics, examination and other support. You are requested to visit the college website <https://www.gcg42.ac.in> on regular basis for any updated information.
